BY THE COURT:-

An application has been filed by the petitioner with the prayer that appropriate orders may be passed for processing and deciding the matter for one time settlement as per the scheme of the respondents. It is submitted that though petitioner has approached the respondents for one time settlement but because of the pending of the writ petition, matter is not being taken up for decision. It be therefore, clarified that the case of petitioner shall be considered for one time settlement.

2) Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner has been able to procure higher bid then even the highest bidder but, this is a matter on which, this Court would not like to comment at this stage because a final view shall have to be taken by the respondents when they enter into one time settlement with the petitioner.

The writ petition is therefore disposed of with the direction and clarification that petitioner shall deposit requisite charges as per the scheme of one time settlement and thereupon the matter of the petitioner shall be processed and decided within two months therefrom. The respondents shall be free to process the application of the petitioner for one time settlement and decide the matter in accordance with their procedure. Till such time the final decision is not taken on the application of the petitioner, auction which already took place, shall not be confirmed and would be abide by the final decision that may be taken in one time settlement.
